Municipal Auditorium, Cleveland O., June 11—While the resolutions committee struggled to smooth out differences arising over certain planks in the platform drafted by its sub-committee through the night, the Republican National convention today cleared the way for final action on the platform this evening.

Rumblings of an impending storm over the world court plank drawn by the sub-committee reached the convention leaders just before today's sessions got under way. It was to head off a threatening outbreak from the floor by such opponents of the Coolidge court plan as Former Senator Albert Beveridge of Indiana, that Chairman Frank E. Mondell, amidst a din of "Noes" gavelled the convention into recess shortly after 12:30 o'clock.

The delegates were told to reconvene at eight p. m., at which time the party leaders hope to have achieved a platform with all its planks meeting the wishes of those who threatened trouble.

The business of the convention today was simply routine. The reports of the other committees were approved. Most important among which, perhaps, was the decision to give women a fifty-fifty representation with the men on the national committee.

Delegates of thirteen wheat growing states, exclusive of Wisconsin, decided to band together and insist upon nomination of a mid-western man for vice-president.

Senator Curtis, republican whip of the senate, and a favored son of Kansas was being urged as a good compromise candidate for President Coolidge's running mate.

Former Senator Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana was the leader of the movement against the plank adopted tentatively endorsing the Harding-Hughes plan for American adherence to the world tribunal.

A strong faction, led by Senator Watson, Indiana and Beveridge fought all night against the flat declaration that is demanded by the Coolidge managers. When they were finally defeated, Beveridge announced that he would carry the

Inspects Shannahan Highway After Hearing on Remonstrance To Prevent Bond Issue

CITY HEARING JUNE 20

The hearing on the bond issue against the building of the Shannahan road, was heard in the court house Tuesday afternoon by Mr. Harris, a representative of the state board of tax commissioners. The petitioners for the road appeared one hundred strong and presented their case to the commission representative, and although the list of remonstrators was long, and contained many singers, only one of them appeared.

Following the hearing on the issue, Mr. Harris inspected the road, in Rushville township, for which the contract has been awarded, and the remonstrance was filed to prevent the sale of the bond issue to pay for the building of the highway.

It was not expected that a report on the matter would be made for a few weeks.

Yesterday had also been set for the hearing on the $30,000 bond issue ordered by the city of Rushville, for which a remonstrance has been filed, but on account of a legal matter, detaining attorneys for the plaintiffs, the hearing was deferred for ten days, and it will be held June 20.

President Will Write His Name High on the Role of Able And Efficient Executives

(By United Press)

Cleveland, Ohio, June 11—"We are met as the representatives of a great political party that has never failed or faltered in its service or loyalty to the Republic; that has never proposed nor advocated an unwise or unsound national policy and it is our privilege on behalf of this party to place in nomination for the highest offices in the gift of the American people, candidates who shall measure up to the finest standards of party leadership and who shall be entitled to and, we confidently believe, will receive the support of a large majority of the American voters at the polls in November," said Frank W. Mondell, permanent chairman of the Republican national convention, today.

"We meet profoundly appreciative of wise, patriotic and inspiring party leadership in the past and earnestly thankful that the kindly Providence and the great good fortune which gave our party and the nation Lincoln, McKinley, Roosevelt and Harding, has vouchsafed us as the wealthy successor of these distinguished patriots, the inspiring character of Calvin Coolidge.

"The American people placed the stamp of their approval on the candidates of the last Republican national convention by a majority of more than five and a half million. Time and events have abundantly justified that paralleled endorsement. He who was chosen as the party standard bearer proved his statesmanship in the skillful handling and wise adjustment of important and weighty domestic and international questions and problems. Diligent in the nation's business, wise in public counsel, honest and courageous in action, he gave himself unreservedly, mind and body, heart and soul, to the nation and became as truly a martyr to patriotic services as any soldier stricken on the field of battle.

CAL'S COHORTS WIN BITTER FIGHT

Coolidge Platform is Finally Agreed Upon After All Night Session of Resolutions Committee

ADJOURNS AT 5:30 A. M.

Fights on Farm Plank And One to Denounce Former Attorney General Characterize Meeting

By PAUL R. MALLON (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Cleveland, Ohio, June 11—After a bitter fight lasting throughout the night, the drafting committee of the Republican national convention finally agreed upon the new Coolidge platform at 5:30 a. m. today.

In a smoke-filled room of the Cleveland Hotel the planks were hewn, one by one, with many stormy struggles. Farm bloc representatives on the committee staged a long attack upon the agricultural relief provision, but just before dawn they were compelled to accept what they described as a "lukewarm" compromise.

Spirited clashes also were fought on the Ku Klux Klan and world court issues. The rest of the Coolidge proposals went through with only minor modifications.

The first clash started when Governor Blaine of Wisconsin read to the committee a set of resolutions denouncing former Attorney General Daugherty and former Secretary of the Interior Fall. These resolutions were recently announced as La Follette declarations. Delegate Adams of Oregon moved that the resolutions be "sent back to La Follette" and amid hisses and cheers his motion was ruled out of order by Warren.

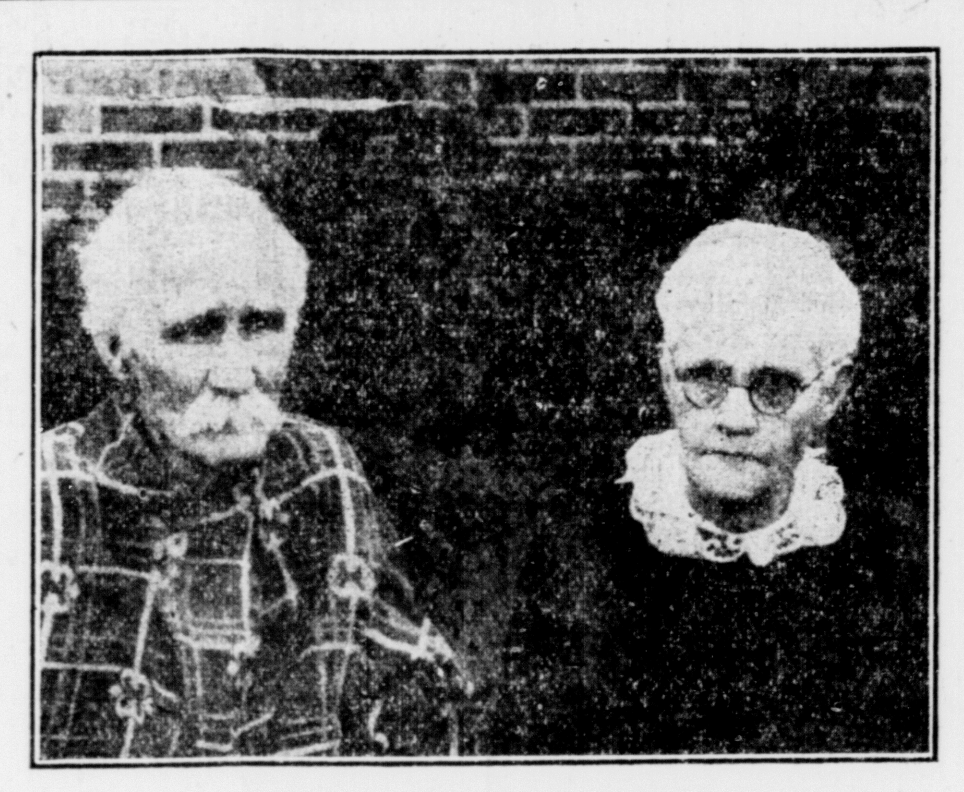

Sitting almost continuously since early yesterday afternoon, the committee stuck relentlessly to the fight and at exactly 4 a. m. Senator Jim Watson of Indiana burst from the committee room and announced that agreement was near. Inside the other haggard committeemen continued to wrangle over minor points until the final announcement of agreement was made by Chairman Charles Warren.

The platform was prepared for presentation to the full resolutions committee at 10 a. m., and will be submitted to the convention by the full committee tonight.

It is 6,000 words in length and is based upon the original Coolidge design of criticizing the recent congress.

Senator Gooding, Idaho, Republican, and representative of a group of mild progressives, led the fight against the farm plank. He was aided by Senator Norbeck, South Dakota.

State's Attorney Crowe Asks Judge to Set Date for Trial at Earliest Possible Time

By Edward C. Derr (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, June 11—Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, 19 year old college graduates and sons of millionaires, today pleaded not guilty to charges of kidnapping and murdering Robert Franks, son of another millionaire.

The two young intellectuals, who previously "confessed" killing the 14 year old boy "for the fun of the excitement" were arraigned in criminal court before Chief Justice John R. Caverly.

An overflow crowd, composed largely of youths, jammed the court room. There were few women present, due largely to the fact that the court room was crowded long before the procession of women spectators started.

Voices of the throng were hushed when Leopold and Loeb, both plainly nervous, were led down the aisle by the court bailiffs. They were seated at the table with Clarence Darrow and Benjamin Bachrach, defense attorneys.

"Are Nathan Leopold Jr., and Richard A. Loeb present?" the court clerk asked.

"Yes, sir," Leopold answered. Continued on Page Six

An orchestra of ten pieces will accompany the staff and provide the music. The trip will be made in automobiles and points of interest will be visited, including Brown county, Indiana University and the stone mills.

A rehearsal will be held this evening at the Modern Woodman Hall.

ANOTHER POLICEMAN ADDED TO LOCAL FORCE

Collie Everman Given Try-Out. Members of Police Commission Say—No One is to be Discharged

COUNCILMEN NOT CONSULTED

Another police officer was added to the department today, it was announced, and Collie Everman, 634 West Ninth street, will take up the duties as a patrolman tonight.

The announcement was made by the police committee of the council, composed of Homer Cole, chairman, and Norman Cram and Frank Abercrombie. Councilmen Chase Manzy and Walter F. Easley were not consulted in the matter, and were not aware of the fact that the council was contemplating the addition of a member to the force. The committee in charge of the police denied that they intended to "dismiss any officer, but stated that "we wanted to put him on extra and give him a try-out."

It was stated by the police committee that the new officer has been employed by the I. & C. traction company at the car shops here.

A glimpse at the police court docket in Mayor Thomas' office shows a small number of court cases this year, which either indicates a lack of work on the part of police officers, or else a scarcity of law violations.

WIND IS CAUSE OF MOST LOSSES

Twice as Much Paid on Tornado Insurance Policies as on Fire. Agents Assert

YET VERY FEW CARRY IT

Rate Fifty Percent Less. Due to Fact That Cyclones Can Not be Started by People

"Very few owners of real estate carry tornado insurance, yet insurance adjusters settled twice as many losses due to wind as they do for damage from fire and lightning," said a Rushville insurance agent today.

Few people realized that this was the case, due to the fact that tornado insurance was never regarded as a necessity, but the cyclone of last Sunday morning, which caused a loss on more than $100,000 on Rush county farms, has brought to light the fact that wind causes far more damage than either fire or lightning.

The weather was more favorable today for cleaning up after the cyclone, which wrecked havoc all over Rush county. Few communities in the county escaped the devastating effect of the wind and rain storm, which unroofed scores of homes and barns, blew down many barns and other outbuildings and deluged household furnishings with water after the windowpanes had been blown in and parts of the roof had been torn off.

The loss from uprooted fruit trees and larger trees can scarcely be estimated. Hundreds of orchards were riddled. In many cases, not a tree was left standing. Fruit trees appeared to be a special target for the wind, for few in the path of the tornado escaped.

Orchards that represented the work of a lifetime were felled in a few seconds. Many valuable tracts of timberland are a mass of twisted tree trunks and limbs as the result of the swoop of the wind down to earth for an instant.

Reports continue to come in of damage by the storm not previously reported. Ollie Siler of Jackson township estimated his damage at $300, not taking into consideration the trees that were blown down. A hen house 12 by 24 feet was blown over twice, other outbuildings were blown down and a part of the roof of his house in which he lives was ripped off.

The opinion prevailed that Jackson township was the hardest hit of any in the county, because the wind made several dips there, causing great

NO TIME SET TO HEAR PARK DRIVE INJUNCTION

Reported Injunction Suit Would Come up Friday, But This is Return Date for Summons

NO SUGGESTIONS FROM CITY

The injunction suit filed by Hershel Daubenspeck against the city administration, seeking to prevent the city from building Memorial Park boulevard, has not been scheduled for trial in the circuit court, according to the court calendar and Judge Sparks.

The councilmen became confused in the matter, as Friday has been named for the return date on the summons served to the defendants. It had been falsely reported that the case on the injunction would be determined at that time.

The court stated that the attorneys for the city had not made any suggestions for a hearing in the matter, and it has not been set for trial. The suit pending trial is delaying construction work on the driveway that is to be built around the park, and for which a bond issue was sold and money for the work is in local banks ready to be paid out when the contracts are finished.

Judge Sparks Tuesday heard the arguments in the Greenfield case which was venued here for trial, and in which property owners are attempting to annul a street paving contract. Judge Sparks took the case under advisement and has not rendered a decision.

A Unique Convention

The Republican National convention being held at Cleveland this week is unique in the annals of politics. At no time in the history of the nation has any political party met in convention with such unanimity of thought regarding its presidential candidate.

President Coolidge's bold, fearless and courageous stand on all questions of the public welfare has resulted in unanimous consent for his nomination. No other candidate even considers having his name placed before the convention.

The only real serious question confronting the convention is that of selecting Coolidge's running mate, and this in itself is not serious; because there is no doubt but that the delegates will find a man qualified for the place, upon whom they can all agree.

The position in which the president now stands should give pause to congressmen, both of his own party and of the opposition party, who have over-riden his veto and have sought to bring discredit upon him.

The respect in which he is held is ample proof that the people appreciate a public servant who has the interests of the people, above all other interest, at heart. When the welfare of the country is placed above party or personal fortunes, it is then that men put public service on a high plane.

The popularity of Coolidge should be a lesson to politicians.

Respect For Law

Not many crimes in several decades have attracted the attention that has been directed to the recent kidnapping and murder in Chicago. Revolting as are its details, its lesson should not be lost; neither should its causes be passed by lightly.

Probably never in criminal annals has such a clear case of guilt been built up against the defendants; involving, as it does, their confessions and the mass of material evidence to support it.

They are both subject to a double death, so to speak, as the law plainly sets out death as the penalty for murder and kidnapping for ransom. Whether or not the death penalty is visited upon them, only time will tell, but the public will follow the case with keen interest because of the many questions involved.

There is no question that the increase of violent crime is closely related to the delay in punishment of criminals.

Those with criminal intent fail to see the relation between a murder and the execution of a murderer several years later, if, indeed, he is put to death at all, and does not win his freedom on one pretext or another.

Crime increases directly as the lessons which prompt application of the law would teach, fail to make an impression on the public mind.

The nation's criminal element will be encouraged or discouraged, according to whatever course this case takes.

On account of the social position and wealth of the defendants' parents, the importance of the outcome of the trial of the two boys is great.

A VERBATIM REPORT

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Mrs. Coolidge's White House "garden parties" of the past month have provided a delightful antidote to the heavy diet of politics and plum-duff through which Washingtonians have had to live during these last months of a pre-campaign session of Congress.

And whatever else they may have done, they have demonstrated that, should the canny and cautious Cal be sent back for another four years in the executive mansion, Mrs. Cal may be depended upon to make up by her own charm and personality for the social shortcomings of her silent partner.

Cards to Mrs. Coolidge's spring parties have been as much in demand as tickets to the Democratic convention. Any good Washingtonian would cheerfully have forfeited seats to the Cleveland convention, for instance, in exchange for admittance to one of these affairs. And to one who has experienced both conventions and garden parties it must be admitted the lure of the latter is the most enthralling.

Take the latest of these "parties" for instance. Even a dashing thunder-shower which drenched the grounds at the very hour the red-coated marine band was tuning up for the festivities, could not dampen the enthusiasm of the invited guests.

By auto and taxi-cab, or on foot with raincoats and umbrellas, they came, full strength.

Shifting her plans to suit the weather's whim, Mrs. Coolidge threw open the whole lower floor of the White House, placed the marine band in the great entrance hallway, and carried the affair through without a hitch.

Instead of greeting her guests on the lawn, she and the president shook hands with all comers in the big East Room and bade them "make themselves at home."

because of the far-reaching effect it will have in influencing people to respect the law.

Politicians are bad enough, but never so bad as their enemies paint them.

No wrong was ever righted by passing resolutions or the "buck".

THE party was a democratic affair, even though Coolidge is a Republican. There were more fedoras and derbies than "plug" hats in the check rooms. And the number of plain business suits on the masculine guests outnumbered the long-tailed "frocks".

Most of the diplomats, of course, and their secretaries and attaches, wore the formal afternoon swallow tails. So did Secretary Hughes, by way of being a diplomat himself.

But Jim Davis, secretary of labor, simply put a red carnation in the buttonhole on his business suit and felt all dressed up.

EDWIN DENBY, former secretary of navy, wearing the business suit of a business man, seemed to enjoy being back under the executive roof. General Sawyer was there, too; in correct afternoon garb, not in the uniform he so long wore with pride.

Lady Isabella Howard, wife of the British ambassador, made her first appearance at a large gathering since her arrival in Washington, and was a center of attention. Her dress? Oh, yes; black velvet with touches of purple and a chinchilla collar.

MRS. BENJAMIN HARRISON, widow of the former Hoosier president, held court near a palm in one corner of the East Room. The older set who knew her when she greeted as First Lady talked over with her the "good old days."

Harvey Wiley, well past 80 but looking in his middle fifties, was a walking endorsement of his "pure food" theories. Wiley practiced what he preached, and kept away from the punch, cakes and ices which were dispensed in the State Dining Room.

And in and out among the throng, with an air of unmistakable pride and proprietorship, strolled Mr. Frank W. Stearns, of Boston.

HILDRETH PICKS GREY LEGS AND ZEV

By FRANK GETTY (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York June 11—Sam C. Hildreth, veteran trainer for the Rancocas Stables, whose entries have been sweeping eastern tracks this year, picks Grey Lag and Zev as the best American horses to meet Epinard, if the French champion comes for a series of match races this fall.

Recommendation of Grey Lag may occasion some surprise among turf followers who have missed the Sinclair six year old from the track this season.

But there will be no surprise among those who know Hildreth and know that the taciturn trainer is secretly "pointing" Grey Lag for just such a comeback.

Grey Lag was ever Hildreth's first love. Zev his second.

Hildreth and the United Press correspondent were sitting on the little porch outside Colonel Matt Winn's offices at Latonia last November, looking out across the track to the blue, smoke-hung Kentucky hills beyond.

He had been talking of Zev, which was to face My Own and In Memoriam on the morrow, and of Man o' War and equine giants of the past.

"What, in your opinion, is the greatest horse you ever trained?" Hildreth was asked.

For a moment the white-haired trainer permitted a wisp of smoke from his cigar to curl upward in the evening stillness. Then he answered uncompromisingly:

"Grey Lag."

"Greater than Zev?"

"Yes, sir?"

"Greater than Man o' War?"

But only the curling, blue smoke answered this, its wisps forming a question mark.

Grey Lag had foot trouble, and started only five times in 1923. The colt's average was as good as any save those of Zev and My Own, however. Sinclair's horse won five races and finished second the other time, contributing $26,900 to the stable's purse winnings.

Jointly with Goaler, Grey Lag holds the American track record for a mile and an eighth. As a three year old it carried 133 pounds to victory in a race at Aqueduct in 1:49, equaling the mark established by Goaler a month previous, when the latter had only 94½ pounds up.

Last year Grey Lag won the Metropolitan Handicap and the Suburban. It has won the Belmont Stakes and the Brooklyn Handicap on previous occasions.

Bad feet kept Grey Lag from greatness and Hildreth from achieving his greatest ambition as a trainer. Now it is being whispered about the stables that he is going to bring Grey Lag back.

Zev, Hildreth's second choice needs no recommendation to the American racing public. The dusky son of the Fin won $235,248 in 1923, besides defeating Papyrus in the international stake race.

This year Zev has been beaten, but the Rancocas trainers still are confident that by "pointing" him for a match race he can be brought along to meet against on four feet on equal terms.

There are a couple of good three year olds under Sinclair's eye. Bracade is in good shape, or was at last reports, and much is expected from Mad Play.

But when it came to picking for the United Press correspondent a horse to meet Epinard, the Rancocas trainer turned to his old favorites.

"I recommend Grey Lag and Zev", Hildreth said. And that's quite a long speech for him.

Tomorrow, Maxey Hirsch, another of the country's foremost trainers, will make his selections for a horse to race Epinard.

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's Hero—George Sisler was made much of at St. Louis and presented with a diploma as the American League's most valuable player of 1922. The Browns were shut out by Waite Hoyt, however, the Yankees beating them 5 to 0 and going in a tie for first place.

The Pirates, one run behind in the ninth, started a rally that netted five runs and beat the Giants 10 to 6.

Falk's homer in the 13th ended a long drawn out contest between the White Sox and Red Sox, Chicago winning 3 to 2.

The Dodgers, with Reuther pitching effectively, gained a full game on the league leaders by beating Chicago 4 to 2.

Old Larry Gardner produced a pinch hit in the ninth and the Indians swept the series with Washington, taking the last game 4 to 3.

Convention Sidelights

The following from Cleveland about Rushville people will be of interest here:

Joseph Watson, youngest son of Indiana's senior senator, has been mistaken for Wesley Barry, the youthful "movie" star, while milling among the crowds in the hotel lobbies. Both are about the same size and each has about the same number of freckles.

Will M. Frazee of Rushville, delegate from the Sixth district, and Mrs. Frazee and their son Will, Jr., arrived here after a thrilling experience. They came by automobile and on the National road ran into a terrific storm. Mr. Frazee said after the trip was resumed he had to assist other autoists in removing trees from the road.

SAYS CONFIDENCE WAS JUSTIFIED

chosen. History will write his name high on the role of able and efficient executives, but we who knew and loved him best will cherish most the recollection of his great and kindly heart, his tender and sympathetic soul. The nation mourned him as one mourns a brother beloved and enshrined him in the only enduring hall of fame the loyal hearts of a grateful people.

"Confidence was the keynote of the sentiment which inspired the nomination of Calvin Coolidge at Chicago four years ago. That confidence grew as he modestly performed the duties of the position to which he was elected and strengthened prodigiously as he met and handled in thoughtful, sympathetic and courageous fashion the many difficult and trying problems presented to him in the presidential office."

"Confidence in President Coolidge is the most important and outstanding fact in the political situation today and in the presence of inevitable differences of opinions of questions of moment, this confidence is as a fine a compliment to the American people as it is to the president; a spontaneous tribute to sincere faith, high courage and honest and unselfish purpose."

"Never was an administration confronted with more difficult and perplexing problems than those presented to the Republican administration and congress elected four years ago, and the marvelous record of legislative and administrative accomplishment which followed is without parallel in the annals of government."

"Never before in our history has the need and necessity of dependable party majorities and of definite party responsibility been so clearly demonstrated as in the very recent past. Legislative control by shifting and changing combinations, resulting in majorities which have no common faith and recognizing no united responsibility, cannot, in the nature of things, produce legislative results beneficial or satisfactory to the people of the country. The inevitable effect of such legislative control is confusing and paralyzing and produces a legislative product satisfactory to no one."

"Every serious fault of recent legislation and every failure to complete and round out a satisfactory program could and would have been avoided had there been dependable Republican majorities in the congress."

"The one certain and assured remedy for such a condition is the election of a congress, Republican, by a goodly majority, both in name and in principle."

fight to the floor of the convention.

A spectacular debate between Beveridge, recognized as one of the foremost orators in the country, and Charles B. Warren, chairman of the resolutions committee, was in prospect as the convention assembled. Beveridge and Warren were in a determined fighting mood as they entered the hall, Beveridge to take his place with the Indiana delegation and Warren to preside over the meeting.

Three home runs over the short Philly fences helped the Reds beat Philadelphia, 4 to 2.

Jess Barnes pitched effective ball after the first inning and the Braves had no trouble defeating the Cards 6 to 2.

The Athletics came from behind to score 3 in the ninth and defeat Detroit 4 to 3.

BUD TAYLOR DEFEATED

Such popularity must be deserved

LUCK may win an occasional match. But it never made a champ. Cups can't be won year after year unless they are deserved. There are cup-winning cigarettes, too. All eyes today are watching

Such popularity is not luck. Chesterfields deserve it. They deserve it simply by right of their decidedly better taste.

SMOTHERING SPELLS

Lady Says She Suffered from a Burning Sensation, Headache, Dizziness, Until She Took Black-Draught.

Signal, Miss.—"For a year or longer I had indigestion, and had it bad," says Mrs. E. S. Holman, of this place. "Everything I ate hurt me. I would have burning in my stomach and smothering spells, and after meals feel right dizzy. My head would begin to ache, and I would want to lie down, but felt I couldn't for I would smother. "Unless one has had such trouble, they don't know what it is. I was talking to a neighbor one day and told her how I had been affected. She told me it was indigestion and to try Black-Draught, which I did. I took a few large doses and then a pinch after meals, and for fully four months now I haven't had indigestion. I eat whatever I please and when I please, but keep up the Black-Draught—just an occasional dose."

When you have a feeling of discomfort after meals, try the suggestion above. Thousands of people have found that Black-Draught promotes relief in indigestion by stimulating the liver and stomach to perform their normal functions. Insist on Thedford's, the only genuine. Sold everywhere. NC-152

ACT OF CONGRESS HELD AS CONSTITUTIONAL

Washington, June 11—The supreme court Monday held the act of congress expressly forbidding the prescription of beer for medicinal purposes, was constitutional.

The decision ended a dispute that began when Attorney General Palmer rendered an opinion, March 3, 1921, that the eighteenth amendment did not prohibit the manufacture of liquors for medicinal purposes.

In the unanimous opinion of the court the eighteenth amendment gave congress sweeping powers to exercise in enforcement. It was held that if in the opinion of congress the prohibition of prescription of beer was necessary to a proper enforcement of the whole amendment, the court could find no reason for questioning such an act of congress.

The court stated clearly that this decision did not reflect upon the prescription of spirituous or vinous liquor for medicinal uses.

LOEB AN LEOPOLD PLEAD NOT GUILTY

The two youths took their places before the rail and were told of the indictments voted against them by the county grand jury.

"You have been indicted on charges of kidnaping Robert Franks", the clerk said, "Do you plead guilty or not guilty?"

"Not guilty, sir," Leopold said firmly.

Loeb was more hesitant but finally spoke up:

"Not guilty."

The same question and answers were repeated regarding the charge of first degree murder.

State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe then asked Judge Caverly to set the date for trial at the earliest possible moment.

Clarence Darrow, chief defense counsel asked for time to build up his defense. He also pointed to "an excited public" in demanding a fair trial.

Judge Caverly then announced the trial would open on August 4. Motions to quash the indictments will be heard on July 21, the court stated.

WIND IS CAUSE OF MOST LOSSES

loss especially in the Newhouse neighborhood.

A much wider coverage for wind damage will be the outgrowth of the storm, insurance agents predicted today. The tornado insurance rate on dwelling houses is about fifty percent of the fire insurance rate.

This is due to the fact, insurance agents explain, that tornadoes, unlike fire, can not be started by human hands. People who buy fire insurance have to help pay for the losses due to incendiary fires, whereas cyclones are the result of atmospheric conditions.

In spite of the fact that tornado insurance rates are only half of fire insurance rates, not many people ever regarded insurance against loss from wind as essential.

In recent years, however, cyclones have become more frequent and it is believed that home owners generally will come to a realization that insurance against loss from wind is just as essential as fire and lightning insurance.

"Ten Dollars or Ten Days"

MOVIES

Starts Thursday

Starting Thursday the Castle theatre presents the big sensational picture, "Daughters of Today" which is said to have created a sensation in the film world, and wherever shown it has broken all records in theatres and also public comment, according to newspaper clippings and in magazines.

The story chiefly concerns Lois Whittall, a beautiful sub-deb, who is the product of the newest freedom and ignorance of the world is a direct contrast to her. Mable's beauty gains her entry to the little clique ruled over by vivacious Loois and here she meets Ralph Adams, a young aristocrat, and his cousin, Reggie, a ne'er do well and waster.

The adventures of these two girls, their outlook on life and finally the testing of the stuff of which they are made, compose the dramatic bit realistic delineation of life in jazz made age of ours.

Patsy Ruth Miller is seen as the society debutante, and of the D. W. Griffith productions, and as a part of Ralph Adams. Philo McCullough plays the villain. Phillip Smalley, Edna Murphy and other capable artists are seen as well as Zaza Pitts, a comedienne, who gives a characterization of the ugly duckling who found it easy to be good because she was so homely.

"Riders Up" at the Mystic

Universal's latest all star picture.

Old Resident Given

Up By Physicians

"Given up by five doctors, my only hope an operation. I rebelled on cutting me open, as I am 75 years old. A neighbor advised trying Mayr's Wonderful Remedy for stomach trouble. I got relief right away. I had not eaten for 10 days and was as yellow as a gold piece. I could have lived only a few days but for this medicine." It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere.

MOM'N POP

"Riders Up", to be shown at the Mystic theatre today was adapted from the Red Book Magazine story, "When Johnny Comes Marching Home", by Gerald Beaumont. It is a story of race track life, and the hero is a tout.

The picture was filmed in Tia Juana. Real races and many real track and stable attaches being shown as atmosphere. Creighton Hale, George Cooper, Robert Brower, Kate Price and Edith Yorke are in the cast which Irving Cummings, who has directed some of Universal's biggest successes, made.

The story is that of a youth who drifted onto the race track after saying goodbye to his widowed mother and his sister in a little New England village. They believed him engaged in a big business venture and are waiting anxiously for him to keep his oft-made promise to come home.

Finally he has a lucky day and prepares to keep his promise but the plight for an aged friend, convinces him that he is justified in once more postponing the visit.

"Where The North Begins"

Rintintin, the champion police dog, who is also a "movie" actor, appears in "Where the North Begins", the far-north picture announced for beginning today as the feature attraction. Around Rintintin centers most of the action of the story, the dog being instrumental in foiling a plot, furthering a romance, and ending the career of a dangerous crook.

"Where the North Begins", a Warner Brothers classic of the screen, is the story of the struggles of two men for the heart of a woman, far up north in an isolated Hudson Bay Company's trading post. Shad Galloway the factor, lords and bullies over all, forcing his unpleasant attentions on Felice McTavish, who loves Gabriel Dupre, a young French-Canadian trapper.

Wishing the young trapper out of the way, Galloway offers a reward of $500 to anyone who will leave the post with a load of fur, this being a dangerous mission due to the operating of a gang of outlaws. Gabriel sets out, in due time comes in collision with the outlaws in wait for him, and is saved only in the nick of time from certain death by a wolf-dog. This is a dog who had turned wild and joined a pack of wolves and who, as soon as he meets Gabriel reverts to his dog state, and makes friends with the young betrayed trapper.

WILL MEET AGAIN AT 8 P. M.

Rumblings of Impending Storm Over World Court Plank Results in Recess to Head off Fight

A. J. BEVERIDGE OPPOSES IT

Business of Convention Routine, All Other Committee Reports Being
Unanimously Approved

(By United Press)
Municipal Auditorium, Cleveland O., June 11—While the resolutions committee struggled to smooth out differences arising over certain planks
in the platform drafted by its subcommittee through the night, the Republican National convention today cleared the way for final action
on the platform this evening.

Rumblings of an impending storm
over the world court plank drawn by the sub-committee reached the convention leaders just before today's sessions got under way. It was to head off a threatening outbreak on the floor by such opponents of the Coolidge court plan as former Senator Albert Beveridge of Indiana, that Chairman Frank E. Mondell, amidst a din of "Noes" gavelled the convention into recess shortly after 12:30 o'clock.

The delegates were told to reconvene at eight p. m., at which time
the party leaders hope to have achieved a platform with all its planks meeting the wishes of those who threatened trouble.

The business of the convention today was simply routine. The reports of the other committees were approved. Most important among which, perhaps, was the decision to give women a fifty-fifty representation
with the men on the national committee.

Delegates of thirteen wheat growing states, exclusive of Wisconsin,
decided to band together and insist upon nomination of a mid-western
man for vice-president.

Senator Curtis, republican whip of the senate, and a favorite son of Kansas was being urged as a good
compromise candidate for President
Coolidge's running mate.

Former Senator Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana was the leader of the movement against the plank adopted tentatively endorsing the Harding-Hughes plan for American adherence to the world tribunal.

A strong faction, led by Senator
Watson, Indiana and Beveridge fought all night against the flat declaration that is demanded by the Coolidge managers. When they were finally defeated, Beveridge announced that he would carry the

PRUITT EXPECTED TO SURVIVE HIS WOUNDS

Slayer of Oscar Cuttenger Removed From Edinburg to Franklin On Account of Threats Made

GRAND JURY IS CALLED

(By United Press)
Franklin, Ind., June 11—Elmer T.
Pruitt, 30, who yesterday shot and killed his cousin, Oscar Cuttenger at Edinburg Ind. was held in the county jail here today on a formal charge
of murder. Pruitt, who shot himself twice through the heart after killing Cuttenger, will recover, physicians said today.

The Johnson county grand jury
will meet in special session tomorrow morning to investigate the shooting. The prosecution will ask for an indictment charging Pruitt with murder in the first degree.

Funeral services for Cuttenger will be held at Edinburg tomorrow.

Although Pruitt's condition is dangerous, he was brought here last night from Edinburg for fear of mob
violence against him.

Feeling was running high and authorities decided it was no longer safe to keep him here.

GAVE HIMSELF TO NATION

President Will Write His Name High
on the Role of Able and Efficient Executives

(By United Press)

Cleveland, Ohio, June 11—"We are met as the representatives of a great political party that has never failed
or faltered in its service or loyalty to the Republic; that has never proposed nor advocated an unwise or unsound national policy and it is our privilege on behalf of this party to place in nomination for the highest offices in the gift of the American people, candidates who shall measure
up to the finest standards of party leadership and who shall be entitled to and, we confidently believe, will receive the support of a large majority of the American voters at the polls in November," said Frank W.
Mondell, permanent chairman of the Republican national convention, today.

"We meet profoundly appreciative of wise, patriotic and inspiring party
leadership in the past and earnestly thankful that the kindly Providence
and the great good fortune which gave our party and the nation Lincoln, McKinley, Roosevelt and Harding, has vouchsafed us as the wealthy successor of these distinguished patriots, the inspiring character of Calvin Coolidge.

"The American people placed the stamp of their approval on the candidates of the last Republican national convention by a majority of more than five and a half million.
Time and events have abundantly
justified that parallel endorsement.
He who was chosen as the party
standard bearer proved his statesmanship in the skillful handling and wise adjustment of important and weighty domestic and international questions and problems. Diligent in the nation's business, wise in public counsel, honest and courageous in action, he gave himself unreservedly,
mind and body, heart and soul, to the nation and became as truly a martyr
to patriotic services as any soldier
stricken on the field of battle.

REPRESENTATIVE OF BOARD VIEWS ROAD

Inspects Shannahan Highway After Hearing on Remonstrance To Prevent Bond Issue

CITY HEARING JUNE 20

The hearing on the bond issue against the building of the Shannahan road, was heard in the court house Tuesday afternoon by Mr.
Harris, a representative of the state board of tax commissioners. The petitioners for the road appeared one hundred strong and presented their case to the commission representative, and although the list of remon-strators was long, and contained
many singers, only one of them appeared.

Following the hearing on the issue, Mr. Harris inspected the road, in Rushville township, for which the contract has been awarded, and the remonstrance was filed to prevent the sale of the bond issue to pay for the building of the highway.

It was not expected that a report on the matter would be made for a few weeks.

Yesterday had also been set for the hearing on the $30,000 bond issue ordered by the city of Rushville,
for which a remonstrance has been filed, but on account of a legal matter, detaining attorneys for the plaintiffs, the hearing was deferred
for ten days, and it will be held June 20.

CAL'S COHORTS WIN BITTER FIGHT

Coolidge Platform is Finally Agreed Upon After All Night Session of Resolutions Committee

ADJOURNS AT 5:30 A. M.

Fights on Farm Plank And One to Denounce Former Attorney General Characterize Meeting

By PAUL R. MALLON
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Cleveland, Ohio, June 11—After a bitter fight lasting throughout the night, the drafting committee of the Republican national convention finally agreed upon the new Coolidge platform at 5:30 a. m. today.

In a smoke-filled room of the Cleveland Hotel the planks were hewn, one by one, with many stormy struggles. Farm bloc representatives on the committee staged a long attack upon the agricultural relief provision, but just before dawn they were compelled to accept what they described as a "lukewarm" compromise.

Spirited clashes also were fought
on the Ku Klux Klan and world court issues. The rest of the Coolidge proposals went through with only minor modifications.

The first clash started when Governor Blaine of Wisconsin read to the committee a set of resolutions denouncing former Attorney General Daugherty and former Secretary of the Interior Fall. These resolutions were recently announced as Lafo-lette declarations. Delegate Adams of Oregon moved that the resolutions
be "sent back to Lafolette" and amid hisses and cheers his motion
was ruled out of order by Warren.
Sitting almost continuously since early yesterday afternoon, the committee stuck resolutely to the fight and at exactly 4 a. m. Senator Jim Watson of Indiana burst from the committee room and announced that agreement was near. Inside the other haggard committeemen continued to wrangle over minor points until the final announcement of agreement
was made by Chairman Charles Warren.

The platform was prepared for presentation to the full resolutions committee at 10 a. m. and will be submitted to the convention by the full committee tonight.

It is 6,000 words in length and is based upon the original Coolidge design of criticizing the recent congress.

Senator Gooding, Idaho, Republican, and representative of a group
of mild progressives, led the fight against the farm plank. He was aided by Senator Norbeck, South Dakota.

TWINS MEET AT AGE OF 78

It is not often the case that twins are able to celebrate their birthdays together when they reach the age of 78 years, but such was the good fortune recently of Mrs. Samantha Armstrong of Marion, Ind., and John Gartin. The picture above was taken at the observance held at Mr. Gartin's home, a short distance east of Rushville.
Many relatives were present. Mr. Gartin has been in very poor health for several weeks and his condition is regarded as serious.

LOEB AND LEOPOLD MOST CAMPS TO PLEAD NOT GUILTY BE REPRESENTED

Two Young Intellectuals Arraigned
in Chicago Court for Slaying of Robert Franks

BOTH PLAINLY NERVOUS

State's Attorney Crowe Asks Judge
to Set Date For Trial at Earliest Possible Time

By Edward C. Derr
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Chicago, June 11—Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, 19 year old college graduates and sons of millionaires, today pleaded not guilty to charges of kidnaping and murdering Robert Franks, son of another millionaire.

The two young intellectuals, who previously "confessed" killing the 14
year old boy "for the fun of the excitement" were arraigned in criminal court before Chief Justice John R.
Caverly.

An overflow crowd, composed largely of youths, jammed the court room. There were few women present, due largely to the fact that the court room was crowded long before the procession of women spectators
started.

Voices of the throng were hushed
when Leopold and Loeb, both plainly nervous, were led down the aisle
by the court bailiffs. They were seated at the table with Clarence Darrow and Benjamin Bachrach, defense attorneys.

"Are Nathan Leopold Jr., and Richard A. Loeb present?" the court clerk asked.

"Yes, sir," Leopold answered.

"Yes," Loeb echoed.

WILL GIVE WORK FOR BLOOMINGTON

Degree Staff of Bernice Encampment
No. 12, I. O. O. F., Practicing For June 21 Appearance

ORCHESTRA TO AID IN WORK

The degree staff of Bernice Encampment, No. 12, I. O. O. F., is rehearsing for a visit to Bloomington,
Ind., June 21, where they will confer the Golden Rule and Royal Purple degrees on a large class of candidates.

It is reported that much interest
is being manifested there in the meeting and a large attendance is anticipated. Bloomington has one of the largest lodges in the state and is the home of the present Grand Master of the Odd Fellows, Charles O.
Thomas.

An orchestra of ten pieces will accompany the staff and provide the music. The trip will be made in automobiles and points of interest will be visited, including Brown county,
Indiana University and the stone
mills.

A rehearsal will be held this evening at the Modern Woodman Hall.

Word Being Received From Modern
Woodman Lodges All Over State
Regarding Attendance

AT LOG ROLLING HERE JULY 4

Celebration Will Attract Many Who
Are Not Members of Lodges—
Nearby Cities Not to Celebrate

Reports being received by M. V.
Spivey, secretary of the executive committee for the Indiana Log Rolling of the Modern Woodman lodge,
which will be held here July 3 and 4,
indicate that most of the camps in the state will be represented by large delegations.

Especially camps in this section of the state will be largely represented, due to the fact that the meeting will not be far away. But even camps
in remote parts of the state are making reservations for delegates. Ken-dallville's camp has sent word that a delegation of ten members of the lodge will arrive on July 3 and remain until July 5.

It now appears that Rushville's hotel facilities will be tested because of the large number of Woodmen who will remain here over night. An effort will be made to persuade the Lollis Hotel company of Columbus, Ohio, which purchased the Windsor hotel this week, not to close the hotel until after the Fourth. The new owners had planned to take possession on or about July 1 and begin remodeling at once.

Those in charge of arrangements
for the Log Rolling are very anxious that the Windsor not be closed over the Fourth as it was planned to house many of the visiting delegates
there. It is thought that the new management will readily consent to hold up operations until after the holiday, so that visitors here will not suffer any inconvenience.

Cities in this part of the state
will not hold any Fourth of July celebration this year to attract people away from the Log Rolling. The annual meeting of the lodge will be more than a convention, because it will be recognized as a Fourth of July celebration as well.

People other than members of the lodge are expected here from many cities in this part of the state, to enjoy the festivities, which will include daylight and night fireworks, band concerts, an industrial and fraternal
parade, an address by Senator James E. Watson, an all-day show at the old fair grounds east of the city, two baseball games and open house at the Elks club, at which all visitors will be welcome.

ESCAPE FROM REFORMATORY

Pendleton, Ind., June 11—Three prisoners escaped today from the state reformatory here, while the men were working on a wall and overpowered a guard seizing his rifle and making their escape. They headed for Indianapolis. The men who escaped were William Downey, Robert Jackson and Arthur Batley.

ANOTHER POLICEMAN ADDED TO LOCAL FORCE

Collie Everman Given Try-Out, Members of Police Commission Say—
No One is to be Discharged

COUNCILMEN NOT CONSULTED

Another police officer was added to the department today, it was announced, and Collie Everman, 634 West Ninth street, will take up the duties as a patrolman tonight.

The announcement was made by the police committee of the council,
composed of Homer Cole, chairman,
and Norman Crum and Frank Abercrombie. Councilmen Chase Manzy and Walter F. Easley were not consulted in the matter, and were not aware of the fact that the council was contemplating the addition of a member to the force. The committee in charge of the police denied that they intended to dismiss any officer, but stated that "we wanted to put him on extra and give him a try-out."

It was stated by the police committee that the new officer has been employed by the L. & C. traction company at the car shops here.

A glimpse at the police court docket in Mayor Thomas' office shows
a small number of court cases this year, which either indicates a lack of work on the part of police officers, or else a scarcity of law violations.

Rush County People Who Invested in Concern Through R. L. Dollings

National Bank of Milroy, is Elect-

Rush county people, who pur-

the R. L. Dollings agency, have received notice of the reorganization of the firm, and a new corporation, the Liberty Spreader Company, has been incorporated, and is now in operation.

ple are represented by Edgar Thom-

J. E. Roughtan, an experienced factory man, came to Liberty to take charge of the Rude plant and office,
and has been able to do much even under difficulties, and a "hangover"
from former management. Business connections were renewed under a new policy of service and progressiveness, and the factory was given more of an up to date system. V. F.

Epworth League Convention Sermon
Delivered by H. W. Hargett

Good attendance marked the annual Epworth League convention of the Connersville district. Methodist Episcopal churches, which was in session yesterday and today at Connersville. Each of the forty churches in this district were represented.

The Rev. H. W. Hargett of the St.
Paul's church of this city delivered the convention sermon at the opening session. The Rev. R. R. Cross of Milroy is president of the district convention and conducted the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. The various musical programs were in charge of O. P. Wamsley, choir director of the local church, and he was assisted by Clair G. Miller of Connersville. At the closing session this afternoon the convention was to elect officers, hear the various reports and name the convention meeting place for next year.

WIND IS CAUSE OF MOST LOSSES

Twice as Much Paid on Tornado Insurance Policies as on Fire,
Agents Assert

YET VERY FEW CARRY IT

Rate Fifty Percent Less, Due to Fact That Cyclones Can Not be Started by People

"Very few owners of real estate
carry tornado insurance, yet insurance adjusters settled twice as many losses due to wind as they do for damage from fire and lightning," said
a Rushville insurance agent today.

Few people realized that this was the case, due to the fact that tornado
insurance was never regarded as a necessity, but the cyclone of last Sunday morning, which caused a loss on more than $100,000 on Rush
county farms, has brought to light
the fact that wind causes far more damage than either fire or lightning.

The weather was more favorable
today for cleaning up after the cyclone, which wrecked havoc all over Rush county. Few communities in the county escaped the devastating
effect of the wind and rain storm,
which unroofed scores of homes and barns, blew down many barns and other outbuildings and deluged household furnishings with water after the windmills had been blown in
and parts of the roof had been torn off.

The loss from uprooted fruit trees
and larger trees can scarcely be estimated. Hundreds of orchards were riddled. In many cases, not a tree was left standing. Fruit trees appeared to be a special target for the wind, for few in the path of the tornado escaped.

Orchards that represented the work of a lifetime were felled in a few seconds. Many valuable tracts of timberland are a mass of twisted
tree trunks and limbs as the result of the swoop of the wind down to earth for an instant.

Reports continue to come in of damage by the storm not previously reported. Ollie Siler of Jackson township estimated his damage at $300, not taking into consideration the trees that were blown down. A hen house 12 by 24 feet was blown over twice, other outbuildings were blown down and a part of the roof
of his house in which he lives was ripped off.

The opinion prevailed that Jackson township was the hardest hit of any in the county, because the wind made several dips there, causing great

NO TIME SET TO HEAR PARK DRIVE INJUNCTION

Reported Injunction Suit Would Come up Friday, But This is Return Date for Summons

NO SUGGESTIONS FROM CITY

The injunction suit filed by Hershel Daubenspeck against the city administration, seeking to prevent the city from building Memorial Park
boulevard, has not been scheduled for trial in the circuit court, according to the court calendar and Judge Sparks.

The councilmen became confused
in the matter, as Friday has been named for the return date on the summons served to the defendants.
It had been falsely reported that the case on the injunction would be determined at that time.

The court stated that the attorneys
for the city had not made any suggestions for a hearing in the matter, and it has not been set for trial. The suit pending trial is delaying construction work on the driveway that is to be built around the park, and for which a bond issue was sold and
money for the work is in local banks,
ready to be paid out when the contracts is finished.

Judge Sparks Tuesday heard the arguments in the Greenfield case
which was venued here for trial, and in which property owners are attempting to annul a street paving contract. Judge Sparks took the case under advisement and has not rendered a decision.

HILDRETH PICKS GREY LEGS AND ZEV

By FRANK GETTY
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York June 11—Sam C. Hildreth, veteran trainer for the Rancocas Stables, whose entries have been sweeping eastern tracks this year, picks Grey Lag and Zev as the best American horses to meet Epinard, if the French champion comes for a series of match races this fall.

Recommendation of Grey Lag may occasion some surprise among turf followers who have missed the Sinclair six year old from the track this season.

But there will be no surprise among those who know Hildreth and know that the taciturn trainer is secretly "pointing" Grey Lag for just such a comeback.

Grey Lag was ever Hildreth's first love. Zev his second.

Hildreth and the United Press correspondent were sitting on the little porch outside Colonel Matt Winn's offices at Latonia last November, looking out across the track to the blue, smoke-hung Kentucky hills beyond.

He had been talking of Zev, which was to face My Own and In Memoriam on the morrow, and of Man o' War and equine giants of the past.

"What, in your opinion, is the greatest horse you ever trained?" Hildreth was asked.

For a moment the white-haired trainer permitted a wisp of smoke from his cigar to curl upward in the evening stillness. Then he answered uncompromisingly:

"Grey Lag."

"Greater than Zev?"

"Yes, sir."

"Greater than Man o' War?"

But only the curling, blue smoke answered this, its wisps forming a question mark.

Grey Lag had foot trouble, and started only five times in 1923. The colt's average was as good as any save those of Zev and My Own, however. Sinclair's horse won five races and finished second the other time, contributing $26,900 to the stable's purse winnings.

Jointly with Goaler, Grey Lag holds the American track record for a mile and an eighth. As a three year old it carried 133 pounds to victory in a race at Aqueduct in 1:49, equaling the mark established by Goaler a month previous, when the latter had only 94½ pounds up.

Last year Grey Lag won the Metropolitan Handicap and the Suburban. It has won the Belmont Stakes and the Brooklyn Handicap on previous occasions.

Bad feet kept Grey Lag from greatness and Hildreth from achieving his greatest ambition as a trainer. Now it is being whispered about the stables that he is going to bring Grey Lag back.

Zev, Hildreth's second choice needs no recommendation to the American racing public. The dusky son of the Fin won $235,248 in 1923, besides defeating Papyrus in the international stake race.

This year Zev has been beaten, but the Rancocas trainers still are confident that by "pointing" him for a match race he can be brought along to meet anything on four feet on equal terms.

There are a couple of good three year olds under Sinclair's eye. Bracdale is in good shape, or was at last reports, and much is expected from Mad Play.

But when it came to picking for the United Press correspondent a horse to meet Epinard, the Rancocas trainer turned to his old favorites.

"I recommend Grey Lag and Zev", Hildreth said. And that's quite a long speech for him.

Tomorrow, Maxey Hirsch, another of the country's foremost trainers, will make his selections for a horse to race Epinard.

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's Hero—George Sisler was made much of at St. Louis and presented with a diploma as the American League's most valuable player of 1922. The Browns were shut out by Waite Hoyt, however, the Yankees beating them 5 to 0 and going in a tie for first place.

The Pirates, one run behind in the ninth, started a rally that netted five runs and beat the Giants 10 to 6.

Falk's homer in the 13th ended a long drawn out contest between the White Sox and Red Sox, Chicago winning 3 to 2.

The Dodgers, with Reuther pitching effectively, gained a full game on the league leaders by beating Chicago 4 to 2.

Old Larry Gardner produced a pinch single in the ninth and the Indians swept the series with Washington, taking the last game 4 to 3.

Convention Highlights

The following from Cleveland about Rushville people will be of interest here:

Joseph Watson, youngest son of Indiana's senior senator, has been mistaken for Wesley Barry, the youthful "movie" star, while milling among the crowds in the hotel lobby. Both are about the same size and each has about the same number of freckles.

Will M. Frazee of Rushville, delegate from the Sixth district, and Mrs. Frazee and their son Will, Jr., arrived here after a thrilling experience. They came by automobile and on the National road ran into a terrific storm. Mr. Frazee said after the trip was resumed he had to assist other motorists in removing trees from the road.

chosen. History will write his name high on the role of able and efficient executives, but we who knew and loved him best will cherish most the recollection of his great and kindly heart, his tender and sympathetic soul. The nation mourned him as one mourns a brother beloved and enshrined him in the only enduring hall of fame the loyal hearts of a grateful people.

"Confidence was the keynote of the sentiment which inspired the nomination of Calvin Coolidge at Chicago four years ago. That confidence grew as he modestly performed the duties of the position to which he was elected and strengthened prodigiously as he met and handled in thoughtful, sympathetic and courageous fashion the many difficult and trying problems presented to him in the presidential office."

"Confidence in President Coolidge is the most important and outstanding fact in the political situation today and in the presence of inevitable differences of opinions of questions of moment, this confidence is as a fine a compliment to the American people as it is to the president; a spontaneous tribute to sincere faith, high courage and honest and unselfish purpose."

"Never was an administration confronted with more difficult and perplexing problems than those presented to the Republican administration and congress elected four years ago, and the marvelous record of legislative and administrative accomplishment which followed is without parallel in the annals of government."

"Never before in our history has the need and necessity of dependable party majorities and of definite party responsibility been so clearly demonstrated as in the very recent past. Legislative control by shifting and changing combinations, resulting in majorities which have no common faith and recognizing no united responsibility, cannot, in the nature of things, produce legislative results beneficial or satisfactory to the people of the country. The inevitable effect of such legislative control is confusing and paralyzing and produces a legislative product satisfactory to no one."

"Every serious fault of recent legislation and every failure to complete and round out a satisfactory program could and would have been avoided had there been dependable Republican majorities in the congress."

"The one certain and assured remedy for such a condition is the election of a congress, Republican, by a goodly majority, both in name and in principle."

fight to the floor of the convention. A spectacular debate between Beveridge, recognized as one of the foremost orators in the country, and Charles B. Warren, chairman of the resolutions committee, was in prospect as the convention assembled. Beveridge and Warren were in a determined fighting mood as they entered the hall, Beveridge to take his place with the Indiana delegation and Warren to preside over the meet-

Three home runs over the short Philly fences helped the Reds beat Phila. 4 to 2.

Jess Barnes pitched effective ball after the first inning and the Braves had no trouble defeating the Cards 6 to 2.

The Athletics came from behind to score 3 in the ninth and defeat Detroit 4 to 3.

Such popularity must be deserved

LUCK may win an occasional match. But it never made a champ. Cups can't be won year after year unless they are deserved. There are cup-winning cigarettes, too. All eyes today are watching

Chesterfield—watching it win additional smokers at the rate of over 1000 a day.

Such popularity is not luck. Chesterfields deserve it. They deserve it simply by right of their decidedly better taste.

ing of the resolutions committee to ratify the final draft of the platform. It was, therefore, with sense of keen expectation, that the delegates came to order at the fall of the gavel shortly after 11 o'clock.

The temporary chairman, Theodore Burton, his voice suffering from the effects of his long keynote address yesterday, called for the singing of the Star Spangled Banner, then introduced Rabbi Samuel Schulman of the Bethel Temple of New York City to deliver the invocation, and the second day's business was under way. The late hour that the different committees worked last night was reflected when 10:30 arrived, the hour for calling the convention to order. Only a handful of delegates were in their seats at this time, the galleries were empty and the floor reservations were sparsely occupied. A rain which started just before convention time contributed to the small attendance.

The Oregon delegation followed the example set by Illinois in abandoning Lowden as a vice presidential candidate when Phil Metchan, chairman of the delegation, received a telegram just before convention time today, which read:

"Your telegram June 9th just received. I greatly appreciate action of the Republicans of Oregon and of your delegation but must adhere to my decision not to accept the nomination even if offered. I therefore have to request that the Oregon delegation do not vote for me upon the roll call. I do not want you, however, or other Oregon friends to think I am any the less grateful for your kindness."

"Frank O. Lowden"

SMOTHERING SPELLS

Lady Says She Suffered from a Burning Sensation, Headache, Dizziness, Until She Took Black-Draught.

Signal, Miss.—"For a year or longer I had indigestion, and had it bad," says Mrs. E. S. Holman, of this place. "Everything I ate hurt me. I would have burning in my stomach and smothering spells, and after meals feel right dizzy. My head would begin to ache, and I would want to lie down, but felt I couldn't for I would smother."

"Unless one has had such trouble, they don't know what it is. I was talking to a neighbor one day and told her how I had been affected. She told me it was indigestion and to try Black-Draught, which I did. I took a few large doses and then a pinch after meals, and for fully four months now I haven't had indigestion. I eat whatever I please and when I please, but keep up the Black-Draught—just an occasional dose."

"When you have a feeling of discomfort after meals try the suggestion above. Thousands of people have found that Black-Draught promotes relief in indigestion by stimulating the liver and stomach to perform their normal functions."

"Insist on Theodor's, the only genuine. Sold everywhere. NC-152"

ACT OF CONGRESS HELD AS CONSTITUTIONAL

Washington, June 11.—The supreme court Monday held the act of congress expressly forbidding the prescription of beer for medicinal purposes, was constitutional.

The decision ended a dispute that began when Attorney General Palmer rendered an opinion, March 3, 1921, that the eighteenth amendment did not prohibit the manufacture of liquors for medicinal purposes.

In the unanimous opinion of the court the eighteenth amendment gave congress sweeping powers to exercise in enforcement. It was held that if in the opinion of congress the prohibition of prescription of beer was necessary to a proper enforcement of the whole amendment, the court could find no reason for questioning such an act of congress.

The court stated clearly that this decision did not reflect upon the prescription of spirituous or vinous liquor for medicinal uses.

LOEB AN LEOPOLD PLEAD NOT GUILTY

The two youths took their places before the rail and were told of the indictments voted against them by the county grand jury.

"You have been indicted on charges of kidnaping Robert Franks", the clerk said, "Do you plead guilty or not guilty?"

"Not guilty, sir," Leopold said firmly. Loeb was more hesitant but finally spoke up:

"Not guilty."

The same question and answers were repeated regarding the charge of first degree murder.

State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe then asked Judge Caverly to set the date for trial at the earliest possible moment.

Clarence Darrow, chief defense counsel asked for time to build up his defense. He also pointed to "an excited public" in demanding a fair trial.

Judge Caverly then announced the trial would open on August 4. Motions to quash the indictments will be heard on July 21, the court stated.

WIND IS CAUSE OF MOST LOSSES

loss especially in the Newhouse neighborhood. A much wider coverage for wind damage will be the outgrowth of the storm, insurance agents predicted today. The tornado insurance rate on dwelling houses is about fifty percent of the fire insurance rate.

This is due to the fact, insurance agents explain, that tornadoes, unlike fire, can not be started by human hands. People who buy fire insurance have to help pay for the losses due to incendiary fires, whereas cyclones are the result of atmospheric conditions.

In spite of the fact that tornado insurance rates are only half of fire insurance rates, not many people ever regarded insurance against loss from wind as essential.

In recent years, however, cyclones have become more frequent and it is believed that home owners generally will come to a realization that insurance against loss from wind is just as essential as fire and lightning insurance.

Starts Thursday
Starting Thursday the Castle theatre presents the big sensational picture, "Daughters of Today" which is said to have created a sensation in the film world, and wherever shown it has broken all records in theatres and also public comment, according to newspaper clippings and in magazines.

The story chiefly concerns Lois Whittall, a beautiful sub-deb, who is the product of the newest freedom and ignorance of the world is a direct contrast to her. Mable's beauty gains her entry to the little clique ruled over by vivacious Lois and here she meets Ralph Adams, a young aristocrat, and his cousin, Reggie, a ne'er do well and waster.

The adventures of these two girls, their outlook on life and finally the testing of the staff of which they are made, compose the dramatic bit realistic delineation of life in jazz made age of ours.

Patsy Ruth Miller is seen as the society debutante, and of the D. W. Griffith productions, and as a part of Ralph Adams, Philo McCullough plays the villain, Phillip Smalley, Edna Murphy and other capable artists are seen as well as Zaza Pitts, a comedienne, who gives a characterization of the ugly duckling who found it easy to be good because she was so homely.

I got relief right away. I had not eaten for 10 days and was as yellow as a gold piece. I could have lived only a few days but for this medicine." It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. ## MOM'N POP

Checking Up On Pop

By Taylor.

"Riders Up", to be shown at the Mystic theatre today was adapted from the Red Book Magazine story, "When Johnny Comes Marching Home", by Gerald Beaumont. It is a story of race track life, and the hero is a tout.

The picture was filmed in Tia Juana. Real races and many real track and stable attaches being shown as atmosphere. Creighton Hale, George Cooper, Robert Brower, Kate Price and Edith Yorke are in the cast, which Irving Cummings, who has directed some of Universal's biggest successes, made.

The story is that of a youth who drifted onto the race track after saying goodbye to his widowed mother and his sister in a little New England village. They believed him engaged in a big business venture and are waiting anxiously for him to keep his off-made promise to come home.

Finally he has a lucky day and prepares to keep his promise but the plight for an aged friend, convinces him that he is justified in once more postponing the visit.

"Where The North Begins"

Rintintin, the champion police dog, who is also a "movie" actor, appears in "Where the North Begins", the far-north picture announced for a two days run at the Princess theatre beginning today as the feature attraction. Around Rintintin centers most of the action of the story, the dog being instrumental in foiling a plot, furthering a romance, and ending the career of a dangerous crook.

"Where the North Begins", a Warner Brothers classic of the screen, is the story of the struggles of two men for the heart of a woman, far up north in an isolated Hudson Bay Company's trading post. Shad Galloway the factor, lords and bullies over all, forcing his unpleasant attentions on Felice McTavish, who loves Gabriel Dupre, a young French-Canadian trapper.

Wishing the young trapper out of the way, Galloway offers a reward of $500 to anyone who will leave the post with a load of fur, this being a dangerous mission due to the operating of a gang of outlaws. Gabriel sets out, in due time comes in collision with the outlaws in wait for him, and is saved only in the nick of time from certain death by a wolf-dog. This is a dog who had turned wild and joined a pack of wolves and who, as soon as he meets Gabriel reverts to his dog state, and makes friends with the young betrayed trapper.

PREXY SMITH OF ROANOKE COLLEGE SAYS:

"What can we do when the daughters of the so-called 'best people' come out attired scantily in clothing but abundantly in paint; with a bottle of liquor, not on the hip but in the handbag; dance as volubly as possible in order to be attractive enough to be spoken about every other step, so as to appear popular; call for frequent intermissions to give them opportunity to quench their thirst from the bottle, and with the man of their choice engage in violent petting parties in the luxurious retreat of a big limousine."

And an ensemble that will remind you of "The Ziegfeld Follies"

A tale of jazz, mad youth in a jazz-mad age — of smuggled blisses and snug bed — of loves and lovers that fade away like smoke from a cigarette — High heels that upset high ideals — wild youth that dances with the gods of folly and never a thought of tomorrow.

Come Early Thursday to avoid the large crowds that will flock to see this great picture.
